These programs include: Literacy Program, Movie Nights, Door to Door Evangelism, Health and Sex Education, Children Evangelism, Sports Club, Leadership and Discipleship, Church Planting, Music Club, etc. Here you will be able to enjoy a flexible ministry schedule, learn about indigenous cultures in Mexico, learn about mission work, leadership, church planting, evangelism, community development, etc.

BRIEF HISTORY

Maria heard the Lord’s call to work with the Indigenous people in the year 2001. She began to make trips to different agricultural camps in this area looking for the place where the Lord would have her served. When she visited the camp Tayoltita in 2005, she felt that the Lord asked her to adopt this camp. It was not until 2007 that she became a full time missionary to this camp. The ministry is now becoming a missionary base where teams from all over the world are visiting. Different worldwide and national organizations/ministries, as well as a few churches in the surrounding areas, are partnering with Bridge To The Nations in transforming the lives of many indigenous groups by scheduling team visits on a regular basis.

OUTREACH*

The purpose of our Outreach ministry is to evangelize, feed the hungry, clothe the naked and pray for the sick. Many people in the local Christian community adhere to a conservative dress code – it is very modest. We must be more culturally sensitive to the Indians while ministering in the camps. As such, in addition to adhering to the dress code outlined earlier in this packet, males should wear long pants or shorts below the knee and females should wear a dress, skirt or shorts that falls below the knee or jeans if they are not tight-fitting while at the camps. Long hair is best tied back or tucked up into a cap or scarf (to help prevent the spread of lice). Little or not make up makeup should be worn.

The distribution of any items or gifts in the camps is not allowed unless prior permission has been given by Bridge To The Nation staff. If your group feels led to bring a treat for children on either Adult or Child Evangelism, we recommend school supplies like, pencil, pens, notebooks, pencil sharpeners, etc., “kid-friendly” nutritional snacks like raisins, popcorn, fruit trail mix, water, juice, etc...instead of candy. These can be bought locally. Sufficient quantities should be bought for all of the children (approximately 300). We suggest bringing jump ropes, balls and other toys so that you may interact with the children during evangelism times.
